Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 6 and 13 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 4-8, 12 and 13 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mackinlay et al (US 6,419,618).

As to claims 1, 6 and 13, Mackinlay et al disclose an image transmission device transmitting: first coded-image data with a first image coded (column 1, lines 65-67 wherein the pattern of bottom sheet with black and white pixel corresponds to first coded image data, and column 3, lines 44-65); and second coded-image data with a coded second change with a predetermined form (column 3, lines 44-65 and fig.3), which is displayed over the first image the second image having a changed form when displayed in the case of the first coded-image data being tampered with thereby to visually evidence the tampering (column 2, lines 22-36).

As to claim 4, Mackinlay et al disclose an image transmission device according to claim 1 (see claim 1 above), wherein the second image includes an image selected from the group of images consisting of marks, stamps, and signature which are used to ensure that the coded-image data of the first image are not tampered with (column 2, lines 22-36).

As to claim 5, although Mackinlay et al does not expressly disclose an image transmission program for realizing the function of claim 1. But Mackinlay et al disclose a computer attached to a display comprising storage device for recording (column 2, lines 22-36). As to the program for transmission, the examiner takes official notice.

As to claim 7, the term outside is vague and indefinite. Therefore, the Examiner interpretation of the claim would correspond to receiving the data from outside of the computer (column 2, lines 22-36).

As to claim 8, Mackinlay et al the first image data and the second image data are acquired by reading from storage media (column 2, lines 22-36).

As to claim 12, this claim is analogous to claim 7 above.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-3, and 9-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
